YOUNG MEN, TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.—
Dr H. devotes much of his time to the treatment of those cases canced by a secret habit which rules both body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for either husiness or society. The sed effect of these early habite, or the excess of right years, are to weaken and debilitate the constitution, destroy the upwisted and mental powers, diminish and enfechle the natural feelings, and exhaust the vital energies of manhood; the pleasures of life are marrod, the object of marriage frustrated, and existence itself rendered eterm of nnearing missry and recret. Buch persons, especially those contemplating marriage, abould lose no time in making immediate application, as br. H., by his new treatment, is enabled to incure a speedy and permanent cure.

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

ARMY NURSES - When our loyal women have furnished all the camp requisites for our soldiers' mfori, they may next be called upon to aitend o the wants of the wounded and minister to the couch of peln. This will not he as pleasant n tesk es sawing for their defenders, but it will beome a duty, and will therefore be met in the noplest spirlt of self sacrifice. Where the war has raged violantly women have been engaged as nurses for the army. A New York contemporary aye one of the first calls of the National Sanitay Association upon the patriotism and humanity the country, was for horoic women, who were rilling to enter upon the sad and trying duties of the hospitals. Scores of ladies from thet city, among them many of eminent delicacy and relinement, accustomed to all the luxurles of our nighest civilization, immediately offered their ANDERSON'S connteous stores of tenderness and compassion froo to the national cause. With this womanly sympathy for the suffering soldier, there was Military and Civilians' Goods ningled an Ignorant and romantic notion of the sort of duties to be performed. Many young ladies thought that kind looks, soft words, an TO BE MADE TO ORDER AT THE LOWEST amieble demeauor, a gentle hand, and a knack of preparing nice jelliss and confections, were the mein requisites for successful nursing; and in these respects they were admirably qualified They did not know of the strong arms, the conrage, the absence of all fastideousness, he everlasting pattence that are the indispensable quelifications of a good nurse. The National Sanitary Association and their co-operating ecclelies in that cliy were obliged, in view of these considerations, to reject about nine ent of ten of the applicants. It was an ungracious act, but The declaration of the correspondent above stice to the sick and wounded soldiore demanded previous experience in the tending of sick persons, and, lastly, an age of not less than thirty years, were the only passports to accoptance. The last Union Camp Chest, Which comprises within the dimensions of Si Inches length, 18 Inches breadth, and it lurhes depth, a portable Pautry, coulaining all the cultury and mechanical appliances for four or elx persons; a Duning Table of Su y Si inches spread, durable concupt for the roughest wear, and a clove, from its strength and convenient implicity, especially suited for camp cooking. TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. WHAT THE FEDERAL TROOPS ARE FIGHTING TO SUSTAIN. HOW OUR SOLDIERS SHOULD BE PREPARED TO FIGHT.

It is a singular fact that a large resportly of the people of the United States are unacquainted with the great importance of the cause for which the soldiers of the Union are fighting. Let every man and women throughout the United States carefully read and study the Contitution of the United States, they will become conrinced of the hellness of our cause and of the wicked-ness of those who ere striving to everthrow this grend alladium of freedom.

We truly believe, that, had the reeding of the Consti-ution been adopted as a daily lesson in every school lbroughout the United States, the doctrines of secession and Steles rights would never have altained the position of a political question; nor would the country have been alled upon to mourn for the unfortunate wrangling and misconstructions that have srigen, and which so man f our statesmen have lost their time in attempting it

Millions of our citizens have never theroughly studied the Constitution, and, even at the present time, when it is the duty of every citizen of this country to inform himself of the rights and privileges secured to him, under i'e protecting arm, it is not in one household in five hundred. In view, therefore, of correcting this great evarsight, end to furnish every man, woman, and child oversignt, and to luchish every man, women, and chied throughout the United States which the means of sludging this great palladiem of liberty, and to protect a against future false doctrines and political disasters, DRS. Even when it seemed morninous of mischief, in the days of rullilication we know, in the language of President Jacks. we know, in the language of President Jacker in May, 1833—himself no friend of high projection—that "the language of President disunion and a Southern Confederacy was the read object." We did not then know with what prophetic feresight it was ad ad by him, that "the next prefext will be the negro or slavery question."

Mr. Everett hero asserts that "the reb llion had its origin in slavery"; and, by way of illustrating and cuf orcing his assertion, he quotes with approval and characterizes as "proph tie the declaration of Pre ideat Jackson that "th real object" of the null fiers in 1832 was "dis or slavery questi n", h reby, in tead of supporting his assertion, conceding the his assertion is unfounded, and that the robellion is simply the culmination of the move-

Secondly, Judga Story, in the eash of the scizure of a Swedish vessel by our privateer Lawrence for carrying contraband goods, said, when delivering the opinion of our Supreme Court, that, "in cases of a more flagrant character, such as carrying despatches or hostilo military passengers, an engagement in the transport the penalty of confiscation of the vessel has a'so been ir flicted." It is here evident that union and a Southern Confederacy", that "the Great Britain waived a right which sho retariff was but the pretext", and that garded as hers by the law of nations, pro hoc "the next pretext" would be "the negro ic, to adapt her policy to that of France, her f temporary ally.

The Evansville Journal will readily comprehend from these facts that Great Britain can take no exception to the conduct of Captain ment set on floot by the nullifiers in 1832, Wilkes unless she stultifies herself by overhaving its origin not in "the tariff" nor yet in ru ing the royal proclamation of 1851, reversing in this cause; when the Financial policy "the negro or slavery question", each of which the decisions of her Admiralty Courts and of its Government was pronounced a signal is a "prof xo" only, but in the long of her most intelligent jurists, and doubling on success; and the Cotten Scheme of the South band envoys. prove successful. The apathy of the North for a great length of time; the eagerness with which commercial which might avert so dreadful a calamity, seemed, for a time, to justify the hope of a divided North. But that insult of the national llag at Sumpter-that outrage upon the smothcred and dormant love of country which animeted nearly every loyal brnast in the loyal States—soon dispelled this fallacious hope. Then arose that gigautic phantom, King Cotton, and the hopes based upon his magnificent promises grow into the most triumphant ertainties; but King Cotton bas abdicated and King Corn is now firmly sented upon the hrone, at least during the continuauco of the war. Nay, King Cotton is nead-huried by the very hands that built up his baseless throne for him. England no more can be lragged at the iron wheels of his car. These hopes we have all heard vaunted t be skies. Only one other have we ever heard vhispered-that the hattle is not always with the strong-that the Lord is abln to conquer by few as easily as hy the many; and that this is a holy cause, and is anstained by the faith and prayers of some of the best people who ever lived. Well, this is a sad fact, and a great mystery And of all the manifold phases of human deusion, this is the most astonishing and incom prehensible. But it is not the first time that a misguided people "have put bitter for sweet, and sweet for hitter, evil for good, and good for evil." It is, however, about the first time that causeless resistance to a mild and beneficent Government, by the Anglo-Saxon racc, has been called a holy cause: the first time that treason has been haptized by the name of patriotism; and treachery, robbery, and falseswearing exalted into virtues of the most heroic class.

If the only hope of the Confederates is that he Supremn Ruler of the Universe will work a sort of miraele in defence of their cause, on service of the enemy and a breach of blockade, the ground that it is a rightcous causo, then indeed must their delusive hopes soon he turned Desperate expedients, the indomitable will of infatuated, misguided multitudes, and the madness of desperation on the part of the eaders, seem to be the only remaining grounds of hope (that in this miserable struggle), their side may be kept up during the winter. All reasonable grounds of hope were taken away when all parties at the North became a unit icate their claims to independence by their wn prowess or resources, they have utterly failed in all their endeavors either to bribe or coerce Foreign Powers to undertake their

Such is the mockery of Southora independence and Southern freedom upon this spurious despotism of Davis, Stephens, & Company. Pattarson was present, and, in response to a cast and three cheers, made a forcible speech exclaining his reasons for not intercepting Gon, cohesten prayings to the lattice of Mineses June. Johnston previous to the hattle of Manassa Junction. He returned thanks for the compliment paid him and for the manner in which it had been received. He said that he was not in the habit of giving reasons for anything he did or did at do, but in the presence of men of so much elligence as the members of the First City Troop part of his command in the short campaign is be valley of Virginie, he considered it due is cm as well as to himself to give a short state ent of facts.

During the latter part of July, all August, and Driving the litter pirt of duly, all August, and pirt of September, there was no slander against him so gross that it could not be asserted and reiterated with impunity and swallowed with avidity. The goutlemen of the Troop knew how false those slanders were. He had submitted to them in quiet, although he had the decuments in his possession to prove that he did all that he was ordered to do, and mere than any one had a right to expect under the circumstances in which he o expect under the circumstencee in which be and his command were placed, and he defied an man, high or low, to put his finger on an orde The geutlamen of the troop were witnesses

The skirmishers were always in front and the fluks well protected. They were caught in no trap end fell into no ambuscade They repeatedly effered the enemy buttle, and when they were the state of the sta In or repartedly energy the enemy batto, and when that accepted it they beat them. Then was no defeat and no retreat with his column. It might be asked, "Why have you not mad this statement sooner?" Here are the publication of the documents sconer would have been most detrimental to the public interests. He preferre bearing the edium so liberally bastowed on him rather than clear, himself at the expense of the bearing the column to hierarry bastowed on him, rather than clear himself at the expense of the cause in which we were all engaged. The time had arrived when the matter could, without injury to the service, bu inquired into; and he was determined that it abould be done, and that before leng all the documents referred to should be published, and spread before the American people, unless those whose duty it was to do so their discounters.

ANOTHER SOUTHERN EXPEDITION.—Captain David D. Porter. United States Navy, is in town, saye the New York Post, getting together the materials for enother expedition to the Southern const. The destination of Captain Porter is not known, of course, but there is no doubt, from the fact that he has been selected to lead it, that there will be fighting done. He comes of n family who are noted for the most desperate bravery. One of the most gallant and remarkable actione in all navel history was the fight of Commodore David Porter, of the Essex, currying thirly-two guns, with the British chips Pheche, currying forty-six gues, and Cherub, twenty-eight, in forty-six gues, and Cherub, twenty-eight, in 1814, in Valparaiso harbor, where he was attacked, in viclation of the neutrality of the port. The fighting blood has not died out of the decendants of the gallant Commodere. now about eighty Government vessels of various sizes and classes in this port, ready or nearly ready for sailing. Others are preparing for service. It ecome, therefore, that the blows on the Southern coast are to be continued.
